Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Life of the Lord Jesus One of the fundamental principles of The Bible Study Union is that Sunday-school lesson helps should never be of such a character as to take the place of the personal study of the Bible itself in the preparation of the lesson. The tendency of helps which do this is to drive the Bible out of the Sunday-school, and to make the opinions of men about the Bible, rather than the Bible itself, the basis of instruction. One evil result of such helps appears in the practical disuse of the Bible in many Sunday-school classes at the present time. For use in the Sunday-school, the Bible without note or comment is much better than the best possible notes and comments without the Bible. It is equally true, as stated by the author of The Bible Study Union Lessons in The Andover Review for October, 1892, that we need all the help we can get in studying the Bible; we cannot have too much of it, provided it is really help; that is, if it is of such a character that it helps to a better understanding of the sacred text, but does not take the place of that text as the basis of study. Much such help can be gathered from historical and geographical works, from commentaries on the gospels, and from the various lives of Christ, of which we now have such rich abundance. The Manual, published in connection with The Bible Study Union Lessons, is designed to afford a large measure of such help. It is because the accompanying Life of the Lord Jesus, by Mrs. Houghton, is...
